9 March 1965

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, SR/Support Staff
SUBJECT : Expenses for HEINE-RAUS Case

1. In a memorandum dated 31 December 1964, Chief, SR advised DD/P concerning the suit for slander being brought by Berik HEINE against Juri RAUS, an unpaid informant of SR by Berik HEINE against Juri RAUS, an unpaid informant of SR Division. In subsequent meetings with ADMP and DD/P on 31 December, [] and the undersigned being present for SR Division, it was agreed that the defense lawyers already retained for us by Office of General Counsel would proceed with the defense, at Agency expense. This is covered in a Memorandum for the Record in the RAUS and HEINE files.

2. We have now been asked to remit funds to cover expenses of deposition of the plaintiff. It is requested that a cashier's check for $2,000.00 be drawn to the law firm of []

[] The check should be untraceable as to originator. For legal and tax reasons, the undersigned will deliver the check to the defendant for passing to the attorneys.
